Choultry at Hampapur (Heggaddevanakote Taluk)

Q.--616. Sri H. K. SHIVARUDRAPPA (Gundlupet—Heggaddevanakote).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the choultry of Hampapur village in Heggaddevanakote Taluk belongs to Government or to the District Board ; and when it was constructed ;

(b) the present conditions of the said choultry ;

(c) whether the lands of Bettahalli village have been given to the said choultry as inamthy ; if so, the number of acres and its jamabandi ;

(d) the objects with which the said inamthy was granted to this choultry, whether those objects are now being fulfilled ;

(e) whether it has come to their notice that the said inam lands are lying fallow ; if so, since what time ?

A.—Sri Kadidal MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue and Public Works).—

(a) It was being managed by the District Board. When it was constructed is not definitely known. It might have been constructed some hundred years back. It is however ascertained that the building was donated for Chattram by an Ursu family.

(b) This has been demolished and a fresh building has been constructed by the District Board.

(c) Yes, they have been given as inamthy not only to this choultry but also for the stable and the Sri Anjaneya and Sri Basavannadevaru temples at Hampapur. Extent : 192 acres 19 guntas. Jamabandi : Rs. 157.

(d) As Dharmadaya for the upkeep of the choultry and the institutions and it is continued as such.

(e) Yes, the lands are reported to be lying fallow since 1951-52.
